Dear Parents and Friends

Jade is a highly valued member of her class. She is enthusiastic and cooperative; she works to her full potential. Jade is always prepared to ‘have a go’ and improve her personal best. She is a highly organised person, she knows how to set goals and plan her time effectively. She displays excellent leadership qualities both within the classroom and out in the playground.

Jade has many friends and is always willing to help others. She shows great consideration for the safety and wellbeing of her classmates. She always treats her teachers and classmates with respect. Jade is a true role model for her peers and is a great kid to have in the class.

Congratulations on being the Aussie of the Month!

Ardoch Youth Foundation
Learning Through Lunch Program
A number of our Year 5/6 students were invited to participate in the Learning through Lunch program, sponsored by the Ardoch Youth Foundation in partnership with Chisholm TAFE Frankston. The students were given a silver service experience at the training restaurant, accompanied by adult volunteers who acted as mentors, engaging in conversations about dining etiquette.

The kids had a terrific time and thoroughly enjoyed the three course meal, experiencing some new taste sensations. The menu included:

Entrée
Zucchini and goats cheese fritters, smoked salmon, dill crème fraîche OR

Slow cooked pork belly, celeriac remoulade, apple puree
Main
Herbed salt crusted beef, mushroom duxelles, pumpkin smoothie
OR
Prosciutto wrapped chicken, roasted kipfler potatoes, bacon and leafy greens
Dessert
Choc brownie surprise, red velvet chocolate sauce OR
Maple syrup cake, caramel sauce

Finally, lunch was finished off with a delicious hot chocolate.

All of the Chisholm students are currently enrolled in high school and undertaking a VET course through Chisholm. A very enjoyable experience overall.

Have a great week,
